Role Description of a Riverview Teacher

The College

Saint Ignatius’ College, Riverview is an independent non-selective boys’ school for Years 5-12. It is a Catholic day and boarding school run by the Society of Jesus and grounded in the Ignatian tradition.

Established in 1880, the mission of the College is to provide an all-round education that inspires boys to a life-long development of their faith. This means they will seek understanding, strive for justice and commit to the service of others with competence, conscience, commitment and compassion.

The College is situated at Lane Cove, Sydney and consists of two campuses co-located on 45 hectares of land. Currently more than 1550 students attend the College, 330 of whom are boarders.

College Mission Statement

‘Our Mission is to provide an all-round education for boys that inspires them to a life-long development of their faith. This means they will seek understanding, strive for justice and commit to the service of others with discernment, conscience and courage.’

(As much as you can do, so much dare to do)

To fulfil its mission, Saint Ignatius’ College teaches its students and encourages its staff and parents to foster a genuine spiritual life that embodies the joy, compassion and hope of an active Christian faith.

The academic program seeks to cultivate an excellence of teaching and thinking that is reflective, analytical and critical. A broad and rigorous curriculum is offered, adaptable to individual needs and responsive to present and future demands.

Each student is challenged to do his best and is given personalised care to achieve individual excellence and high self-esteem.

The goal of Jesuit education is a quality of soul, which manifests itself in the pursuit of justice through genuine love of neighbour, and through the development of a personal and authentic faith in Christ.

Teachers at Saint Ignatius’ College, Riverview, are professional educators whose work is guided by the values of the Ignatian tradition enunciated in the College’s Mission Statement. Each Teacher is a member of a Faculty Team, which is inspired at all times by the highest Ignatian ideals of Companionship and Team.
1. Domains of teaching

1.1 Ethos and values

A Riverview Teacher:

- supports and espouses the values of the Catholic Church in the teaching and learning environment
- provides Christian example and model by word and action

- enables students to make good use of the resources available within the school and the community
- engages with the regulations and communications of BOSTES and other regulatory bodies

1.3 Professional practice

A Riverview Teacher:

- actively engages students in the planning and learning process, perceiving that learning is an active and collaborative venture, both between the teacher and students and the students themselves
- where possible and appropriate, negotiates with students, giving them the opportunity to make choices and decisions, to take risks and to set their own goals and evaluate their own outcomes
- creates a learning environment which stimulates learning and promotes excellence, where students are both challenged and supported
- shares explicitly with students a code of conduct which enables students to work productively in a fair environment
- uses effective communication strategies to support student understanding, participation and engagement
- ensures good classroom management
- ensures class rolls and attendance are strictly monitored
- maintains a clean, tidy and healthy classroom and is aware of emergency procedures for students’ safety, and specific safety procedures related to the subject or activities taught
- ensures student well-being and safety within school and where there is a perceived danger to a student, communicates confidentially with the Deputy Principal Students, the Dean of Pastoral Care or a member of the Executive Team
- develops appropriate assessment procedures and modes of reporting assessment in consultation with fellow members of staff
- uses a range of assessment (as, of and for learning) techniques regularly and fairly
• explains assessment criteria to students in advance, so they can understand the relevance of the grade and comments, and use the information constructively in future work
• provides timely and appropriate feedback to students about their progress
• encourages students to reflect on their work and the process they have gone through to achieve it
• keeps adequate records of students’ progress and uses this data to analyse and evaluate student understanding as well as identifying interventions and modifications to teaching practice
• as a member of a professional academic team, ensures that reports are neat, accurate, meet deadlines and reflect students learning; recognising strengths and weaknesses and suggesting possible courses of action
